

The Foundation Office at Fifth Third Bank

Guidelines for Grantseekers

Connecting Charitable Foundations to the Community

The Foundation Office at Fifth Third Bank is committed to creating a meaningful impact on programs and initiatives that create strong, vibrant communities and provide pathways to opportunity.

We aim to strategically align resources entrusted to us by connecting the needs of the community to private foundations. Grants for programming in education, historic preservation, the arts, environment and nature conservation, housing and food security, and community wellness are considered.

The Foundation Office and the grants referenced in these guidelines are separate from the grant process for the Fifth Third Foundation. If you would like to be put in contact with your regional contact for the Fifth Third Foundation grants, please reach out to foundationoffice@53.com.

Grant Application Process

Grant applications are considered by family foundations administered by the Foundation Office. All grant applications will be reviewed by the foundations' committees to find the best fit.

Once applications are reviewed, your organization will receive one of the following responses:

- A decline email
- A grant approval email with next steps
- A request for a meeting or site visit
- A notification that your request is still under review

Most communications will be sent by email from Heidi.Jark@Foundations.53.com. Some organizations and email service providers block emails from unfamiliar email addresses. To ensure you are receiving our communications, we suggest you verify your organization will accept communications from this email address.

Grant Application FAQ

Will my application be considered by the Fifth Third Foundation?

No. Grant programs referenced in these guidelines are administered in an application process separate from that of the Fifth Third Foundation. If you would like to be put in contact with your regional contact for the Fifth Third Foundation grants, please reach out to foundationoffice@53.com and we'd be happy to connect you.

Can I meet with someone from the Foundation Office before submitting a grant application?

It is not necessary to meet with a Foundation Office representative prior to submitting a grant application. The grant application process serves as a point of introduction and allows organizations to submit up to three funding priorities for consideration. That said, a Foundation Office representative may request a site visit.

How can I apply if my organization is a supporting organization designated under subsection 509(a)3?

Please reach out to foundationoffice@53.com and provide either an attorney opinion letter or a copy of your organization's most recently completed tax return confirming that the organization is type I or II, if this information is not contained in the IRS Business Master File of exempt organizations.

Can I apply or submit a request by mail or email?

No. The Foundation Office does not accept requests outside of the online grant application process.

Where do I find the grant application invitation code?

Invitation codes are listed on the Welcome Screen of the Grant Application websites. They will only be valid during the time applications are being accepted.

When I return to my in-progress application, I cannot edit my application and I receive a message that states, "This application has not yet been submitted to the Fifth Third Bank. No further changes may be made to this application. Click here to return to the Welcome page." How do I continue to edit my application?

Applicants returning to their in-progress application need to enter the invitation code each time that they log in. Please log in again using the invitation code, and you will be able to continue to edit your application.

Why are K-12 schools ineligible if several of the foundations focus on education?

The foundations with a focus on education provide funding to community organizations that support schools, rather than individual schools themselves.

If I have additional questions, who can I contact?

Please send additional questions to foundationoffice@53.com.
